Presenters

Marie Butcher, long time resident of Carmel Valley and the Peninsula, is a naturalist, writer, photographer, and group leader. Marie teaches writing and ESL at Monterey Peninsula College and the Monterey Institute of International Studies. She has led multiple workshops locally and trips abroad. In her business Green Heart Works, Marie brings a love of the earth to her educational offerings, workshops, retreats, and eco-spiritual trips.

Paola Berthoin, private chef, artist, and educator, has lived in Carmel Valley for forty-eight years. Being involved for over twenty-five years in local environmental issues and tending the land she lives on infuses her ways of interpreting the natural world through painting, photography, writing and advocacy for rivers and watersheds. Establishing the educational organization RisingLeaf Watershed Arts in 2001, and completing the community book, Passion for Place in 2012, many seeds of ecological awareness have been and continue to be planted locally and globally.

Hastings Reserve is located 26 miles east on the Carmel Valley Road. To learn more, visit www.hastingsreserve.org
