

World Rivers Day

Sunday,
September 29, 2013

Come help clean up the Carmel River of trash before it gets carried into the ocean with the winter rains.

Where: Carmel River at the Little League Field, Carmel Valley and along the river near the Crossroads Shopping Center. (Check facebook page for exact meeting locations.)

You can also adopt your own section of the river and let us know where you plan to pick up trash so we can post it to the International World Rivers Day site and our Facebook pages. Let's make this a big event!
